Women of Relentless Devotion

Greetings Relentless Women...

This month I have been encouraged by the Lord to – Jot the Thot!

Smith Wigglesworth said that he never prayed for more than 10 minutes at a time and that he never went ten minutes without praying. Praying to me is – talking to God. When I talk to God and then LISTEN – He speaks to me. He impresses upon my spirit direction for my life, WORD to guide me, desire to pray for others or situations and He even gives me WORDs of encouragement for others.

Because I am chatting with the Lord while I am doing other things, I don't always stop and record what He is saying to me. He has been telling me not to forget what He is talking to me about – He wants me to write down His conversation with me. Last night He said – Jot the Thot – and yes to spell it that way. I think to cause me to remember. This is my first step – I am putting into print what He has spoken to me. I have found that the Holy Spirit moves in waves and if He is speaking to me about a thing – it is not JUST for me.

I encourage each of you to pick up a journal and begin to Jot the Thot. God is speaking to each of us and I believe that He does not give us anymore than we can handle. He will give us download – bit by bit – so we can digest it. He is serving up a feast of His WORD one course at a time so that we can consume it and enjoy it and understand how it all comes together for our blessing. He is strengthening us, preparing us for the battles ahead – for there are battles coming. When we Jot the Thot – we will have a record of His WORD to us for hope and a good success (Jer 29:11). When we meditate His WORD

And whenever you stand praying, if you have anything against anyone, forgive him and let it drop (leave it, let it go), in order that your Father Who is in heaven may also forgive you your [own] failings and shortcomings and let them drop. — Mark 11:25

A Place of Rest

Well here goes – what has impressed me lately from the Joseph Prince ministry is the continual revelation that we have been taught for years that we have to "do" or "be" or "feel" a certain way to receive the Lords blessings. Many of us have been taught that we need to be someone or do something to earn what we have already been given. This belief will directly put us back under the law. We can still hear in many sermons that are being preached today if not directly, then indirectly, woven into comments and stories being told, that we need to earn our position.

What the WORD tells us in the new covenant is, that we are seated (a position of rest) at the Father's right hand, in Jesus. What our position should be is a position of rest in the finished work already performed on our behalf while we were yet sinners. We are not to live as though we are working for a response but living AS a response – the life of freedom as it has been given to us.

We boast not of our great love for Jesus but we boast of His amazing love for us.

INSIGHTS

Talking with the Lord:

- Come in with Thanksgiving and Praise.
- Give Him the Glory.
- Bask in His Love and Grace for you.
- Speak His WORD – it produces.
- Pray for our troops, first responders, fire personnel and law enforcement at home and abroad – Psalm 91.
- Pray effectively – James 5:16 AMP
- Pray for your family – including yourself – Ephesians 6:18 AMP & Psalm 23
- Pray for your husband – Psalm 112 MESSAGE and put his name in it (husbands do the same for your wife)
- Pray for your children – Ephesians 6:10-17

When we pray it is vital that we pray according to God's WORD. Isaiah 55:11 AMP - So shall My word be that goes forth out of My mouth: it shall not return to Me void [without producing any effect, useless], but it shall accomplish that which I please and purpose, and it shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

God has given us His WORD to use to accomplish purpose and to prosper and to please Him.

Insight and Sharing

I would love for any of you who have something they would like to share – please share. I know that God is speaking to each and every one of you – please share. Each of you has a different view, a different walk – share with us what the Lord is sharing with you. Give us new revelation and new insight. It can be a devotion that touched you, a scripture that has given you strength. Or tell me what your group is doing and sharing.

And remember – no matter what is going on in your life – Jeremiah 29:11 - NIRV
